

London Permaculture Festival 2026

11:30 – 12:30

Going under the microscope with the soil food web — Rebecca Goodall

Storrow Hall

11:45 – 12:45

Introduction to Permaculture — Matt Phillpott

Butterworth Room

11:45 – 12:45

Medicinal forest gardening by design: staying healthy with sustainable plant resources — Anne Stobart

Trefusis Hall

12:00 – 13:00

Sewage down the pan: what happens next? — Julian Doberski

Committee Room

13:00 – 14:00

Introduction to Permaculture — Nat Mady

Butterworth Room

13:00 – 14:00

The SuperSalads Show: daily foraging for our greens — Jo Barker

Storrow Hall

13:10 – 14:10

Composting: going beyond composting our food waste — Susannah Hall

Committee Room

13:10 – 13:50

How to use Natural Dyes: From Kitchen Waste to Cloth — Zoë Burt

Karpales Room

13:10 – 14:10

The Productive Garden — Stephanie Hafferty

Trefusis Hall

14:15 – 14:45

Processing natural fibres: nettle, hemp, flax — Allan Brown

Karpales Room

14:15 – 15:15

The Science of Garden Biodiversity — Julian Doberski

Storrow Hall

14:20 – 15:20

Reusing Greywater — Hugh Livingstone

Committee Room

14:20 – 15:20

Rewilding at all Scales — Nicola Peel

Trefusis Hall

14:30 – 15:30

Campaign for the Right to Grow

Butterworth Room

15:30 – 16:30

Finding Lights in a Dark Age: Sharing Land, Work and Craft — Chris Smaje

Trefusis Hall

15:30 – 16:30

Rain Gardens — Jon Bromwich

Committee Room

15:30 – 16:00

Simple Herbal Remedies — Roisin Reilly

Karpales Room

15:40 – 16:40

Permablitz London — Susannah Hall

Storrow Hall

16:45 – 17:45

An Introduction to Sociocracy — Rakesh Rootsman Rak

Committee Room

16:45 – 17:45

Everyone makes a difference with Permaculture — Andy Goldring

Trefusis Hall

16:45 – 17:15

How to repair and upcycle your denim clothing — Jahmale

Karpales Room

16:50 – 17:50

Introduction to Permaculture: The Garden & Beyond — Rishil Parekh

Butterworth Room

16:50 – 17:50

The wellbeing benefits of keeping chickens or quails — Matt Phillpott

Storrow Hall